Part B: Reading Passage 1

Name: _____

The Missing Garden Signs

On Monday, Ms. Chen asked her class to plant herbs in the school garden. Each group wrote a sign to identify its plants. During recess, a sudden rainstorm soaked the paper signs because the students had forgotten to cover them. By the next morning, the writing had washed away. Two students accidentally watered the wrong garden bed because they could not tell the herbs apart. Ms. Chen showed the class how to make waterproof signs. The students covered new labels with clear plastic, and the garden beds were easy to identify again.

Directions: Complete each missing cause or effect using information from the passage.

CAUSE	EFFECT
_____ _____	The signs became soaked and their writing washed away.
The writing on the signs washed away.	_____ _____
_____ _____	The students made new labels covered in plastic.
The new signs were protected with plastic.	_____ _____

Part B: Reading Passage 2

Name: _____

A Delayed Field Trip

Leo’s class planned to visit a nature reserve on Friday. That morning, the bus arrived late because a road was blocked by construction. The class reached the reserve after the guided bird walk had already started. Their teacher called the visitor center, and a ranger offered a shorter walk along a nearby trail. During the walk, the students stayed quiet and spotted a family of deer near a pond. Since the class had less time than expected, they ate lunch on the bus during the ride home. Although their schedule changed, the students still had plenty to discuss in their journals.

Directions: Complete each missing cause or effect using information from the passage.

CAUSE	EFFECT
_____ _____	The bus arrived late.
