Name: _____ Date: _____

Author's Purpose - Practice Quiz

Authors write to entertain, to inform (teach), or to persuade (convince).

Part A - Circle the best answer

Read each description. Decide whether the author wants to entertain, inform, or persuade.

1. A brochure describes the exhibits, hours, and ticket prices at a science museum.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

2. A student writes a letter asking the principal to add more shade trees to the playground.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

3. A funny story tells how a clumsy dragon accidentally becomes a chef.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

4. A guide explains how to prepare an emergency kit before a storm.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

5. An advertisement claims a new backpack is the best choice for every student.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

6. A poem tells about a moon that sneaks into a child's bedroom and dances.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

7. A newspaper report describes when and where a new bridge will open.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

8. A speech encourages families to reduce plastic waste and bring reusable bags.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

9. A comic strip follows two penguins trying to learn to skateboard.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

10. An article explains how bees communicate the location of flowers.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

Name: _____ Date: _____

Author's Purpose - Practice Quiz

Part B - Identify and explain

Read each description. Write the author's purpose and explain what clues helped you decide.

1. A magazine article describes how sea turtles travel long distances and use Earth's magnetic field to find their way.

Author's Purpose: _____
Explain: _____
_____

2. A poster urges students to join the school garden club, saying they can make friends and improve the school.

Author's Purpose: _____
Explain: _____
_____

3. A short story tells of a squirrel who enters a baking contest and mistakenly uses salt instead of sugar.

Author's Purpose: _____
Explain: _____
_____

4. A letter to the town council argues that the library should stay open on Sundays so more families can visit.

Author's Purpose: _____
Explain: _____
_____

5. A textbook section explains the stages of the water cycle with definitions and examples.

Author's Purpose: _____
Explain: _____
_____

6. A fairy tale describes a lonely giant who makes friends with a talking mountain.

Author's Purpose: _____
Explain: _____
_____

Answer Key - Separate Teacher Page

Part A

1. Inform
2. Persuade
3. Entertain
4. Inform
5. Persuade
6. Entertain
7. Inform
8. Persuade
9. Entertain
10. Inform

Part B - Sample Answers

1. Inform. It explains factual information about sea turtle navigation.

2. Persuade. It encourages students to join by giving reasons.

3. Entertain. It tells an imaginary, amusing story.

4. Persuade. It argues for a change and supports it with a reason.

5. Inform. It teaches facts about a science process.

6. Entertain. It presents a fictional adventure for enjoyment.

Accept equivalent explanations that correctly identify the author's intention and cite an appropriate clue.