Name: _____ Date: _____

Author's Purpose - Practice Quiz | Set 2

Remember: Authors write to entertain (amuse), inform (teach or explain), or persuade (convince).

Part A - Circle the best answer

Read each description. Choose the author's main purpose.

1. A brochure explains the hours, ticket prices, and safety rules at a wildlife center.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

2. A student writes a letter asking the principal to add more shaded benches to the playground.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

3. A humorous story follows a penguin who accidentally becomes the captain of a pirate ship.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

4. A website gives step-by-step instructions for making a simple rain gauge.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

5. A commercial says a reusable water bottle is the best choice for every student and urges families to buy one.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

6. A poem describes a dragon who is terrified of tiny butterflies.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

7. A newspaper article reports when the new bridge opened and how it was built.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

8. A poster asks neighbors to volunteer for a weekend park cleanup and explains why their help matters.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

9. A comic strip shows two squirrels arguing over a pretend treasure map.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

10. A museum display describes how fossils form over millions of years.

a. To entertain b. To inform c. To persuade

Name: _____ Date: _____

Author's Purpose - Practice Quiz | Set 2

Part B - Identify and Explain

Read each example. Write the author's purpose and explain which clues helped you decide.

11. A librarian writes a message recommending that the school extend library hours. She describes how students could use the extra time to finish research and borrow books.

Author's purpose: _____

Explain: _____

_____

12. A science magazine article describes how bees carry pollen between flowers and why this helps plants produce seeds.

Author's purpose: _____

Explain: _____

_____

13. In a short tale, a shy cloud tries to join a singing contest but keeps making thunder instead of music.

Author's purpose: _____

Explain: _____

_____

14. A student writes a review urging classmates to choose the new playground game because it is easy to learn and includes everyone.

Author's purpose: _____

Explain: _____

_____

15. A guide explains the differences among three types of clouds and includes examples of weather associated with each.

Author's purpose: _____

Explain: _____

_____

16. A play features a talking backpack that complains about carrying too many textbooks.

Author's purpose: _____

Explain: _____

_____

Answer Key - Set 2

Part A

1. Inform
2. Persuade
3. Entertain
4. Inform
5. Persuade
6. Entertain
7. Inform
8. Persuade
9. Entertain
10. Inform

Part B - Sample Answers

11. Persuade. The writer recommends a change and gives reasons to convince the school.

12. Inform. The article explains facts about pollination.

13. Entertain. The imaginary, amusing events are meant to engage readers.

14. Persuade. The review urges readers to choose a game and supports that choice with reasons.

15. Inform. The guide teaches factual information about clouds.

16. Entertain. The talking backpack is a fictional, humorous character.

Accept other reasonable explanations supported by the description.